3. ELIGIBILITY/AUDIOGRAMS

3.1 Eligibility

The Tournament is open to all deaf and hard of hearing male and female golfers.

The hearing loss is defined as a hearing loss of at least 55 dB per tone average in the better ear (3-tone frequency average at 500, 1000 and 2000 Hertz, ISO 1969 Standard).

A detailed description about the hearing loss and the audiogram can be found at the ICSD webpage: <http://www.deaflympics.com>

3.2 Audiogram

An ICSD approved audiogram is required to enter the competition.

Before submitting a new audiogram, please check with the National Deaf Sports Federation (NDSF) for your country's latest audiogram list to check if the player is already in ICSD audiogram database.

If a player is not registered in the ICSD database, he or she must make a hearing test at a doctor. The doctor should fill in all of the ICSD audiogram, even the Bone Conduction, Typanometry and Reflexometry, otherwise it will not be approved.

The audiogram could be obtained at the ICSD webpage www.deaflympics.com, the ICSD does not accept any other audiogram but their approved audiogram form.

The player should send the audiogram to the NDSF for review. The NDSF will then forward the audiogram to ICSD. All new audiogram forms must be submitted to ICSD three (3) months before the event.

The players may be required to take additional hearing tests during the Championships. Any player that does not pass the hearing test or is refusing to take a test will be disqualified.

3.3 Hearing Aids

It is not allowed to wear hearing aids, cochlear implants or any other hearing implements during a championship round.

Penalty for breach of the rule: Disqualification.

3.4 Handicap

The handicap limits to enter the EDGC are stated under Clause 2 of this Regulation. The player shall have a handicap that is at or below the handicap limit on the final entry date to the EDGC.

A player must show records from a handicap system approved by his/her National Golf Association, which should be as per the WHS (World Handicap System).

Permission needs to be sought from the SD at least one month prior to the final entry date to get an exemption from the handicap requirements, accompanied with evidence of the player's scores.

The National Deaf Golf Federation or National Deaf Sports Federation President and Secretary must make declaration in their letter accompanied with the evidence.

Should the player's handicap increase (between time of entry and the tournament start date) beyond the handicap limits for that players category, then the player is to notify the Organizing Committee who will then refer the matter to the Tournament Rules Committee who will then provide a decision.

3.5 Age Limit

There is no minimum age to participate in the EDGC. Golfers under 16 years of age must be accompanied by a guardian. National Deaf Golf Federations can choose to increase this age limit as deemed necessary according to their requirements.

4. THE RUNNING OF THE EUROPEAN DEAF GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

4.1 Rules of Golf

Rules of golf shall be based on R&A Rules of Golf.

The rules could be found at the R&A website; www.randa.org.

Local rules shall be handed out to the players before the start of the competition. The rules shall be written in English. The players are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the local rules.

4.2 Amateur Status

The EDGC is open for amateurs and for players working as golf pros teaching golf.

Players on the professional golf tours are not allowed to play in the EDGC.

EDGC reserves the right to refuse any professional if there is any doubt as to the amateur or professional playing status of any entrant for the EDGC.

4.3 The Golf Course

The golf course must be officially recognized by the R&A.

The EDGC recommends the following yardage for a par 54 golf course:

<input type="checkbox"/> Men's Tournament:	6500 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Women's & Senior Women's Tournament:	5500 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Senior Men's Tournament:	6000 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Male Juniors Tournament:	6500 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Female Juniors Tournament:	5500 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Men Stableford Tournament:	6500 yards
<input type="checkbox"/> Women's Stableford Tournament.	5500 yards

It is recommended that the Organizing Committee arrange for spotters or forecaddies on potentially dangerous holes such as blind holes, or on difficult holes that could slow down the pace of play significantly.

The golf course shall have a practice field where the players can warm up. It shall also have a restaurant or similar facility where the players can have lunch.

If the Organizing Committee elects to use two different golf courses, one golf course shall be used for Men's Tournament and the other golf course shall be used for Women's and Senior's Tournaments. The golf courses shall not be located too far from each other.

4.4 Minimum Number of Entrants

The minimum number of entrants, in order to qualify as a European Deaf Golf Championship shall be:

- The minimum number of nations shall be six.
- The minimum number of entrants overall shall be 36 golfers.
- The minimum numbers of entrants in each category shall be five golfers.
- The minimum number of teams to make a team championship eligible is three.

4.5 Maximum Number of Entrants

The Organising Committee shall determine the maximum number of entrants in an early stage of the planning.

If many players are expected to participate in the EDGC, the Organising Committee shall consider arranging the Ladies and Seniors Tournament on a second golf course.

If it is not possible to use a second golf course, the Organising Committee shall, after consulting with the Sports Director and the EDSO board, reduce the number of players as follows:

- Golfers in the teams have first priority.
- Players with highest handicaps ie. Stableford (exact) should be eliminated first.
- Any ties for last place will be decided by ballot.
- Players eliminated will be placed on a waiting list in exact handicap order.

The decisions of the Tournament Rules Committee are final.

4.6 Team Captain/Manager

Each country shall select a Team Captain or Manager. The name of the Team Captain/Manager should be given to the Organising Committee and to the SD prior to the start of the Championships.

All information etc from the Organising Committee and EDGC during the Championships should be forwarded to the players via the Team Captain, Manager or other person appointed by the Team Captain/Manager.

4.7 Team Captains / Managers Meeting

The Tournament Rules Committee shall be issuing all rules [including local rules] and procedures to each Country Team Captain and / or Manager on the Technical Meeting prior to tournament commencement date.

A Team Captains / Managers meeting will be held on the afternoon of the day prior to the first round, to discuss the upcoming Championships. Further Team Captains / Managers meetings can be held at any time, as determined by the Tournament Rules Committee, to discuss any matter.

A preliminary Local Rules sheet will be provided one month prior to the Championships, however the Local Rules will not be official until the day before the practice round, to ensure that all course conditions in the lead up to the Championships have been allowed for.

4.8 Practice Round

The EDGC shall include a practice round one day before the start of the tournament, and shall be included in the Tournament Entry. The Organising Committee should also ensure the availability of the golf course for practice (at the player's expense) up to a week prior to the first round of the EDGC.

4.9 Golf Balls and Golf Clubs

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the List of Conforming Driver Heads and Golf Balls.

4.10 Golf Carts

Electric pull trolleys are allowed.

4.12 Caddies

For all Categories, the use of Professional Caddies including the use of Professional Golfers / Coaches / or similar is forbidden.

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the requirements for use of caddies during a EDGC.

4.13 Advice

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the requirements for advice in competition during a EDGC.

4.14 Electronic Equipment

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the requirements for use of electronic equipment during a EDGC.

4.15 Pace of Play

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the requirements for the pace of play during a EDGC

4.16 Starting Times

The Tournament Rules Committee is responsible for the starting times.

The starting list for the first round shall be determined by a draw.

Under no circumstances should a playing group have players from one single country. If it should happen that all the golfers at a starting time are from the same country, the last golfer shall be exchanged with the first golfer from another country at the next starting time.

In the event of a single tee start, on the second round the starting list shall be turned around; i.e. the front half of the first round first tee list, shall be flipped around, and swap with the bottom half.

In the event of a two tee start, on the second round the starting list shall be turned around; i.e. the front half of the first round first tee list, shall be flipped around, swap with the bottom half, and be moved to the 10th tee. Those starting on the 10th tee in Round 1 shall have same applied, and be moved to the 1st tee.

On the third and fourth round the starting list shall be based on the players position in the tournament; i.e. the leaders in Men's, Women's, Senior Men's, Senior Women's and Junior's Tournament should go out last.

The starting times must be announced in the afternoon or early evening prior to the start of each championship round. The starting times shall be published on a notice board where the majority of the players can read it. Copies should also be handed out to the Team Captain/Manager of each country.

The Tournament Rules Committee has the rights to alter the starting times if deemed necessary.

The player is personally responsible for knowing his or her own starting time.

The player should arrive at the first tee ten minutes before starting time.

4.17 Scorecards

The player must exchange his or her scorecard with his or her marker.

It is the responsibility of the player to return the scorecard to the scorers hut, recording desk or another location as determined by the Organising Committee as soon as possible after completion of the round.

It is an obligation to have a recording desk in the EDGC. It shall be located close to the finish, preferable with seats and a table where the players can sit down and finish, check and sign their scorecards.

In case of any queries, the golfers should consult with the Tournament Referees before signing and returning their scorecards.

On request by any player, the Organising Committee should hand the scorecard to the player after the Tournament so he or she can hand it to his or her own golf club.

4.18 Results

The Organising Committee shall publish the results after each round as soon as possible on a notice board at the official Tournament Room, and be accessible for all Tournament Players. The EDSO website should also be updated on a daily basis. Copies should also be handed out to the Team Captain/Manager of each country and to the SD

When the results are placed on the Tournament Results Notice Board, they are considered to have been officially announced.

4.19 Discontinuing or Cancellation of Play

The Tournament Rules Committee has the right to discontinue the play and/or cancel a round in case of potentially dangerous weather conditions.

The Conditions of Competition issued for each EDGC will specify the requirements for discontinuing or cancellation of play during a EDGC.

The minimum number of holes played to make the EDGC results official shall be 36.

4.20 Code of Behaviour

Players and their caddies should refrain from any action, in words or behavior, which may be regarded as not sportsmanlike or unacceptable by their fellow competitors.

Any such misbehavior should be reported to the Tournament Referee, who will confer with the Tournament Rules Committee who will decide on the course of action.

The decision of the Tournament Rules Committee shall be final.

4.21 Tie Breaking Procedures - Individual Tournaments

Ties for first place in the individual tournaments will be broken by a sudden death playoff.

A sudden death playoff shall be used to declare a winner only. The other players in the playoff are to be declared as tied for second.

The Tournament Rules Committee shall choose the hole(s) designated for the playoff.

The holes may not be finalised until the scope of any playoff is determined and the course availability at the time of the playoff is known.

If a playoff cannot be held due to weather, darkness or other cause, a winner shall be declared by matching scorecards by using the following count back system.

The holes shall be examined as they appear on the scorecard. A winner shall be determined on the basis of the best score in the following sequence:

1. Last 18 holes (1-18)
2. Last 9 holes (10-18)
3. Last 6 holes (13-18)
4. Last 3 holes (16-18)

5.3 Nationality

A player must have a valid passport for the country he or she is representing. The player shall have some relationship to the country, e.g. live in, or have been born in, or have parents from the country he or she is representing.

If a player has represented a country previously he has to wait for two years before he or she can represent another country. The player's former National Deaf Golf- or National Deaf Sports Federation must give their approval. The player is not allowed to represent his or her former country in any sport during this time.

A player can only change his or her nationality once.

5.4 Withdrawal by a Player or a Team

The entry fee (minus the bank charges) should be paid back if the player wants to withdraw his or her entry before the final day for entering the Championships, unless the National Deaf Golf Federation is able to provide a substitute player, who is already on the ICSD 'approved' database. Players who are not on the ICSD 'approved' database, cannot replace other players that withdraw.

A fine shall be paid if a player wants to withdraw after the final day for entering the Championships. The fine shall be determined in advance by EDSO.

5.5 Communication – Prior to Tournament Start Date

To clarify any issues or raise questions, players are to contact their National Deaf Golf Federation who will then raise or clarify issues with the Organising Committee or the SD.

In circumstances where a player communicates direct to the Organising Committee or the SD, that player will be directed to contact their National Deaf Golf Federation.

5.6 Communication – During Tournament

For communication between players and the Organising Committee, Tournament Rules Committee or EDGC, the player is to refer the issue / dispute to his / her Team Captain or Manager who will then represent the players issue to the relevant organization / committee.
