4.7. Competition Plan

See attachments for full programme.

4.7.1. Teams Event

Teams shall be required to play ties comprising: one (1) men's singles, one (1) men's doubles, one (1) women's singles, one (1) women's doubles, & one (1) mixed doubles.

4.7.1.1. Constitution of Matches and Teams

- Each tie shall be decided by the results of the two (2) singles and three (3) doubles matches and all five (5) matches shall be played.
- No player shall play in more than two (2) matches.
- If a team has only one (1) male or one (1) female player at the start of a tie, two (2) matches must be conceded to their opponents and the player available can only play in one (1) match.

4.7.1.2. Preliminary Round

The entered teams will be divided into groups (two (2) or four (4) groups) of three (3) to five (5) teams each. During the preliminary round, each team shall play all other teams in its group.

4.7.1.3. Finals

After the classification in the preliminary groups is established, the teams will play in the finals in the following manner:

- a. Two groups: A1 vs B1 for the first and second place. A2 vs B2 for the third and fourth place.
- b. Four groups: There will be semi-finals with A1 vs D1 and B1 vs C1. The winning teams of the semi-finals will play for the first and second place, while the defeated teams will play for the third and fourth place.
- c. Classifications: The teams placed third, fourth and fifth in each group will play for the fifth and following places using the same system as above.

4.7.1.4. Classifications of Teams

The classification of teams in each group shall be made on points, namely one (1) point for each game won and nil (0) points for each game lost.

If, at the end of a round, more teams have the same number of points, it shall proceed into the following manner, following the rules of the "Surdiman Cup" as published in the BWF website 2013-14. The ranking will be decided in the following way:

- a. If two (2) teams have won the same number of ties, the ranking will be decided by the result of the tie between them.
- b. If three (3) or more teams have won the same number of ties, the ranking shall be decided by the total number of matches won. If this leaves two (2) teams equal, ranking will be decided by the result of the tie between them.
- c. If three (3) or more teams have won the same number of ties and the same number of matches, ranking will be decided by the difference between total games won and total games lost. If this leaves two (2) teams equal, ranking will be decided by the result of the tie between them.
- d. If three (3) or more teams have won the same number of ties and the same number of matches and have the same difference between total games won and total games lost, ranking will be decided by the difference between total points won and total points lost. If this leaves two (2) teams equal, ranking will be decided by the result of the tie between them.
- e. If three (3) or more teams have won the same number of ties and the same number of matches, have the same difference between total games won and total games lost and have the same difference between total points won and total points lost, ranking will be decided by drawing lots. A conceded match shall count as if completed without the conceding side scoring another point. All results of any team that has been disqualified or withdraws shall be entirely deleted.

4.7.2. Singles

- a. The players entered will be divided in groups of 3 to 4 players, the numbers of groups to be multiple with 2: 2, 4, 8, 16 and so on. Each player will play all the other players in the group.
- b. The players classified 1 and 2 in each group will play a normal tournament competition where only the winners advance to the next round.

4.7.2.1. Classification of Players

The classification of players in each (preliminary) group shall be made on points, namely: One (1) point for each game won and nil (0) points for each game lost. If, at the end of a round, some players have the same number of points, it shall proceed in the following manner:

- a. If two (2) players have the same number of points, the result of the games between them shall have precedence.
- b. If more than two (2) players have equal points, a second classification shall be established, taking into account only the games played between the players with equal points.
- c. Should there still be equality, the players shall be reclassified according to their number of sets won subtracted by the number of sets lost, taking into account only the games played among the players with equal points after the second classification.
- d. Should there still be equality of points and sets, the classification shall be made by "goal" (point) average, taking into account the games played among the players with the same number of points.

4.7.3. Doubles

All doubles are played according to the normal tournament system where only the winners of a match advance to the next round.
